WAYMON MUMFORD

Reverend Waymon Mumford graduated from Wilson High School in 1967. In 1980 he received an A.S. degree in Police Science from Florence-Darlington Technical College. He graduated from the 133rd FBI National Academy in 1983. He received a B.S. in Business Administration degree from Limestone College in 1992 and was awarded the honorary Doctor of Laws Degree from Morris College in 2012.

Reverend Mumford was employed with the City of Florence for twenty-five years and retired as Chief of Police. He was elected to County Council District 7 in November 1994. He has served as Chair, Vice-Chair and Secretary/Chaplain for the Florence County Council and has chaired numerous standing committees. He graduated from the Interdenominational Theological Center (ITC) in the spring of 2003 and is the pastor of Central Baptist Church in Florence. He has been and still is actively involved in community affairs.

Reverend Mumford and his wife Senora are the proud parents of two sons, one daughter and seventeen grandchildren/great-grandchildren.
