

November

Children will love this touchy-feely book, packed with appealing photographs of cute animals and tactile textures to engage the senses.

This bright, interactive board book is full of fun tactile elements. Help to build a child's vocabulary and develop their hand-eye coordination as they name all the of the darling pets through-out while they discover the touch-and-feel textures.